We pray in thanksgiving for Charlie Rapa, Carmela Principato Trasso and all those who have died recently.

We pray for Vincent Sciberras, Frank and Sam Haber and all those whose anniversary occur at about this time.

Please also pray for and all those who are sick.

ROSARY REFLECTION

The month of October, each year is dedicated to the most Holy Rosary. The parishioners at Resurrection invite you to join us in reflecting and praying the rosary, every Monday night at 6.30pm & Wednesday morning at 10.00am in the church.

STEWARDSHIP DISTRIBUTION

Please remember to collect your stewardship envelopes, credit card and direct debit statements after Mass. They will also be available for collection at next weekend Masses. Thank you to those who continue to give generously every week.

SAFETY FIRST

Bollards were installed in the parish office carpark. Sometime ago we had an incident where a car accidentally drove into the brick wall of the Parish Office. Thankfully no one was hurt, but some damage was caused to the building, which has since been repaired. Installing these bollards will make our Parish car park safer. Fr Gerard.

Reading 1

Is 53:10-11

The LORD was pleased to crush him in infirmity. If he gives his life as an offering for sin, he shall see his descendants in a long life, and the will of the LORD shall be accomplished through him.

Because of his affliction he shall see the light in fullness of days; through his suffering, my servant shall justify many, and their guilt he shall bear.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 33:4-5, 18-19, 20, 22

R. (22) Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

Reading 2

Heb 4:14-16

Brothers and sisters: Since we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who has similarly been tested in every way, yet without sin. So let us confidently approach the throne of grace to receive mercy and to find grace for timely help.

Gospel

Mk 10:35-45

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to Jesus and said to him, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you." He replied, "What do you wish me to do for you?"

They answered him, "Grant that in your glory we may sit one at your right and the other at your left." Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you are asking. Can you drink the cup that I drink or be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized?" They said to him, "We can." Jesus said to them, "The cup that I drink, you will drink, and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; but to sit at my right or at my left is not mine to give but is for those for whom it has been prepared." When the ten heard this, they became indignant at James and John. Jesus summoned them and said to them, "You know that those who are recognized as rulers over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones make their authority over them felt. But it shall not be so among you. Rather, whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many."

Reflection

The request that Jesus refused to grant

James and John were two opportunists. Their one aim was rise in the ranks. To achieve their end they did not hesitate to beg. They did not mind how much envy and resentment they aroused in their companions. Their aim was to scramble up the career ladder. But at what price to themselves? If in the course of their rise to the top, people lose themselves, their own souls, whatever they do or achieve will be worthless. Power hardens the human heart. A hard-hearted person is incapable of love. It is by giving that we receive, and it is by serving that we grow in love.
